The villa is about 1 km from the popular Mijas Pueblo with all amenities. Mijas Pueblo This beautiful villa is located next to Mijas Pueblo, a stunning white mountain village, about 400 meters above sea level and about 10 km from the coast. This charming "pueblo blanco" (white village) is one of the most popular attractions in Costa del Sol all year round. The atmosphere in this village is an inspiration to many artists and writers, who have chosen to live there and enjoy the authentic, tranquil Andalusian lifestyle. The village will simply steal your heart with the beautiful white houses, cosy souvenir shops and boutiques, cafes and restaurants with stunning views and many activities such as Flamenco dance every week. The village is also visited by many hikers all year around due to the beautiful nature around Mijas Pueblo with several amazing hiking trails of varying difficulties and challenges. Attractions The location near the vibrant cities of Fuengirola, Marbella, Puerto Banús, Benalmádena, Torremolinos & Malaga offers a variety of activities, from fun on the beach with many kinds of water sports to cultural experiences. For art lovers the city of Málaga is a must with its many museums, among them Picasso and Carmen Thyssen. For entertainment, Puerto Banús in Marbella is one of the largest entertainment centres on the Costa del Sol. If you are feeling adventurous, explore El Caminito del Rey - The King's Path - a walkway that's pinned along the steep walls of a gorge. Or opt for a more leisurely experience at the botanical garden near Málaga. Or maybe you prefer spending the day at one of the many exclusive golf courses nearby. The options are many and for the entire family.
