Its old quarter retains its charm and allure, while the thriving tourist industry in the area means all kinds of amenities are within reach. Everything from zoos and water parks to dolphinariums, cable cars and ne restaurants are but a few of the attractions that the area has to offer. One of the reasons for Benalmádena's success as a tourist and holiday destination is its wonderful climate. Average yearly temperatures are about 19C and it enjoys over 300 sunny days a year. Whatever your reason for coming to Benalmádena, you'll find many more reasons to want to stay.
