In the nerve centre of the Costa del Sol, there is this unique home due to its peculiarity. Although it is just a few steps from the centre of Torremolinos, this property enjoys all the tranquillity, surrounded by trees and peace. Upon entering we find an independent kitchen open through a window to the living room. A small hallway leads us to the living room and next to it a small terrace where we can enjoy the warmth of the wonderful weather that we always have in our area. On the upper floor there are two bedrooms with built-in wardrobes, a small storage room-pantry for relaxation and another terrace to see the stars from the room. The urbanization has a recently restored swimming pool, green areas and a parking area. This home is ideal for living close to all services.
