This semi-detached residence is situated within an exceptional urban development nestled between Estepona and San Pedro de Alcántara, conveniently reachable within a mere 10-minute drive. Boasting proximity to supermarkets and dining establishments, and a mere 2-kilometer distance from the beach, the property offers unparalleled convenience. Comprising of generously proportioned living spaces, capacious bedrooms, and well-appointed bathrooms, the house further features an ample terrace. Additionally, a partially-subterranean level has been ingeniously repurposed into an additional living area, while a commodious attic, complete with two terraces, crowns the residence. The inclusion of private parking, as well as 100m² additional basement adds to the practicality of the property. Residents are afforded the privilege of indulging in paddle tennis on the available courts, reveling in landscaped gardens that incorporate a barbecue zone, and cooling off in the swimming pool. This residence truly merits a personal visit to fully appreciate its splendor.
